New Website to aid in 911 Readdressing

The Bradford County Commissioners would like to announce the latest news on the countywide readdressing project. A new web based Questionnaire Response Form is available on Bradford County's Website at www.bradfordcountypa.org under the 911 Readdressing information page. Residents can view an aerial photo of their property while filling out the form. Using the website will decrease the time to complete the project allowing 911 addresses to be placed in use sooner. Residents in Regions 1 – 4 have already received questionnaires requesting name, current mailing address and phone number(s). Anyone who has received a questionnaire and has not responded by mail can now fill out the questionnaire online. Residents in Region 5 are in the process of receiving questionnaires now. Residents in Regions 6 – 9 will be receiving questionnaires through September of this year. All Bradford County residents receiving questionnaires can use the online service instead of mailing the information.

Field crews with MSAG Data Consultants out of Orange, Virginia will continue delivering questionnaires to residents throughout the county, region by region. The map below shows how the progression through the county will proceed.

County Commissioner Mark Smith stated that "It is very important that each resident receiving a questionnaire promptly use the new website or return the postage paid information card to MSAG data consultants. Each and every resident in Bradford County has the power to move the county through this process quickly, efficiently and cost effectively. Keeping costs down and protecting Bradford County residents are our ultimate goals and we're hoping for your cooperation to accomplish these goals".
